

University of New Mexico-Taos – Northern New Mexico Climate Change Corps (CCC)

Program & Field Trip, May 18, 2018
Rio Grande Hall, UNM-Taos Civic Plaza Campus
Taos, NM

Agenda

8:45 A.M. - Light refreshments

9:00-9:45 - Presentation on Kit Carson Solar Plan 2017-2022 by Luis A. Reyes Jr., CEO, Kit Carson Electric Cooperative

9:45-10:45 - Presentation on Renewable Energy Economy for Northern New Mexico by William M. (Bill) Brown, Consultant, Renewable Taos, Inc.

10:45 - All participants travel to Taos & Los Cordovas Electrical Substations (south end of Blueberry Hill Road, Taos, NM)

11:00-11:45 Discussion at Taos & Los Cordovas Electrical Substations on Taos & vicinity connections to the Western Regional Electricity Grid; exporting and importing renewable energy; strategic placement of renewable energy facilities.

11:45 - Travel back to UNM-Taos for luncheon with current and newest students just selected to join the CCC.

Brooke Zanetell, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor, Natural Resources Program, UNM-Taos

USDA Program Director, Northern New Mexico Climate Change Corps (CCC)

575-770-6830

<http://taos.unm.edu>

<http://ccc.unm.edu>

Barb Wiard, Outreach Coordinator

Northern New Mexico Climate Change Corps (CCC)

575-737-3745

bwiard@unm.edu

#####